About Us

As the founders, Libby and Anne aim to make a transformative difference. They believe in 'giving back' to others and have a deep passion for wanting to help improve skin imbalances to rebuild and restore a nourished, hydrated skin, creating a healthy youthful appearance. Libby and Anne believe that by using their pure and natural skincare, you will achieve positive, effective results and feel a sense of bliss, joy and improved well-being.

Libby's journey began as a Beauty Therapist. She has 10 years practical experience dealing with skin imbalances and has previously taught Beauty Therapy at Perth College.

Libby is also a qualified Naturopath who successfully ran her own clinic (The Green Gingko), for 13 years as a Naturopathic Practitioner, specialising in 'gut' imbalances.

Originally from New Zealand, Anne started her career as a teacher, before moving to Australia. Anne made WA her home and went on to become a successful Production Manager, manufacturing natural skincare products for the past 18 years.

Together, they are Angelic Wellbeing.

Our Why

Our passion is pure and natural skincare made with love. Our luxurious skincare range is naturopathically formulated and designed to transform your complexion, leaving a balanced, hydrated and nourished appearance.

Our products are infused with the finest pure and natural botanical extracts, essential oils, rich antioxidant essential fatty acids, vitamins, minerals, homoeopathics, rose quartz crystal and the 528 hertz frequency for 'self-love'.

With every 'pure and natural' skincare product sold, we make a donation to our chosen CHARITY - Debra Australia to help find a cure for the painful genetic skin condition, Epidermolysis Bullosa.
