Pet Photography With A Difference...

The STUDIO NOAH Experience = WARM FUZZIES

Naughty dogs, shy cats, cheeky horses?

Regularly working with all types of animals including crazy, nonchalant and the rescued. We know how to get the best out of pets and their camera shy pet parents too.

We meet our clients at their choice of location. The session is always fun and easy, and the amazing results speak for themselves.

Rain, hail or shine. The results will take your breath away...

Energetic?

Shy?

Naughty?

No need to sit still...

We have a flexible style for all personalities. Sensitive and gentle when needed, and full of fun otherwise. The images beautifully reflect your pets love of life, and your love for each other.

Rescue Animals...

Rescue animals who have had a hard start to life often need a little more love and sensitivity to encourage them to come out of their protective shell and trust again. Our genuine love of animals and 17+ years experience comes into play here, giving us the skills to be able to connect with your pet's tender soul.

We are up for a challenge, and put our money where our mouth is with a full money back guarantee if the session isn't everything you hoped it would be.

Our Why?

We aim to honour the value pets have in people's lives through photography and videography. Our animals teach us so much. They are masters of being in the moment, loving and living to the full and being their authentic selves, all of which illustrates their sentience.

Giving back

We are committed to helping the community by raising awareness on animal welfare and other important focus areas. As well as contributing to many charitable fundraising events by donating our time and resources, we also have a close relationship with many vets, rescues and other pet related businesses. We realise to make a difference we need to focus not only on animal welfare, but also the big picture including the environment, health and attitudes.

If you have a cause close to your heart, please ask us if we can help.

Your Perfect Location

The location can dictate how your pets feel about expressing themselves, and their ridiculous antics. Choose a location where you and your pets have fun together!

Yes we do travel far and wide. If you're far from Perth please contact us for travel information

Each expression is unique.

Each bond is pure.

Each embrace purr-fect...

Why Not Include The Whole Family?

A pet is often the centre of the family, bringing everyone together, though each of us connect in our own special way.

When it's time to say goodbye to your forever friend...

The Forever Session

The ultimate way to honour the love you have shared over the years is with a Forever Session. These sessions are photographed with care and sensitivity so we can capture everything you love about your forever friend.

Laughter mixed with tears for all the good times and the bad.

A true soul connection, remembered forever...

If you need an urgent shoot due to your pet's health condition, we will give your session top priority. We can often book your shoot with only a few days notice (time permitting).

Because it's the everyday moments you miss when they are gone. Capturing these treasured moments with professional videography allows you to relive them again and again in the form of a beautiful movie memory set to music.

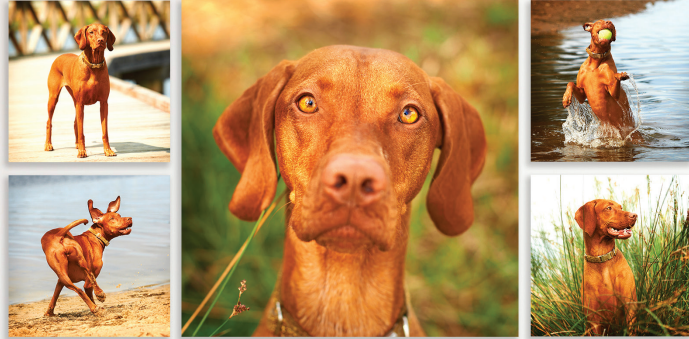

The session is fun and easy, set at a magical location, and can include all the family. We have special tricks up our sleeves to ensure you and your camera shy pets can relax.
